ADMINISTRATION

I wish to take this opportunity to congratulate the yearbook staff, the student body and the faculty of the Johnston school in the completion of a successful school year. To those graduates who will leave Johnston High School to enter agriculture, business or college I wish every measure of success and know that you have appreciated the help of your parents and school patrons who have made your education possible.

F. B. Louys
County Superintendent of Schools

Greetings to the Senior Class:

You are to be congratulated on the production of your school annual, especially since it is the Fiftieth Anniversary of all the graduation classes of Johnston High School.

May your future endeavors be as successful as those in your school days.

Charles H. Lowry
Assistant County Superintendent of Schools

This annual is your picture diary of our school year. The editorial staff has tried to select for you those things which they thought you would like to remember. Some of these faces and scenes will always be a vivid memory, others will be a mere shadow, but all of them will join together to create for you the memories of your school days at Johnston School.

B. D. Coldiron
Superintendent of Johnston School

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

In the fall of 1941, twenty children started a new adventure with rosy cheeks and stary eyes. Of the original twenty who entered the first grade, only two remain, Shirley Bacon and Betty Cushman. The hard struggle to count to 100 was even worse than the 3 R's; but, we accomplished it and started the second grade with sixteen members.

From the first grade, where Mrs. Watt was our teacher, we moved on to the second with Mrs. Tyler as our teacher. During this year, twelve members moved away and nine others joined us to make our class. In the third grade we met Mrs. Wall who helped us with our time tables. From there we moved into Mrs. Millikin's room for the fourth grade and to Mrs. Sunbury's for the fifth and sixth grades.

As our class went through the elementary grades it kept growing smaller and smaller. In our junior high school years, we started with twelve members in the seventh grade. Those junior high school years were surely a riot for us. If it wasn't one thing, it was another. We surely gave Mr. Clark and all his staff a difficult time.

Mr. Thomas became Superintendent as we entered the ninth grade. In high school the changing of classes and many teachers were a little confusing for us, but somehow we made the grade. In our junior year Mr. Coldiron joined us as our superintendent, with more new teachers.

Now we are Seniors! We have seven members--Shirley Bacon and Betty Cushman who still remain from the first grade, Shirley White and Nancy Cole who started in the fifth grade, Irene Glover and Helen Huffman in the tenth grade, and Jack Coldiron who came at the beginning of our junior year.

Our senior year now comes to a close. All of us are preparing for another stepping stone in Life. With all the bustle there is a thought, which brings sadness to our happiness, "We are leaving Johnston High School." With many a backward look at the school, we know that life will busily continue beneath the banners of Red and Blue. We say "Adieu" and turn away, eager to take part in life.

CLASS WILL

We the Senior Class of 1954 do, hereby, will and bequeath our last will and testament to our most proud successors. Being signed and duly contested by our most honorable professors, this is officially our last will and testament.

To the Faculty, we leave the piece of mind that we started taking from them twelve years ago.

To the Juniors, we leave all the hard work it takes to become a Senior.

Shirley Bacon wills her ability to find a good excuse to stay home when test time comes to Jane Coldiron.

John Coldiron wills his ability to study hard to George Cole, and hopes he uses it.

Nancy Cole wills her quietness in study hall to Naomi Bland, and hopes she tries to do it just once in a great while.

Betty Cushman wills her secretarial ability to Donnie Stewart, and hopes he has a lot of fun using it.

Irene Glover wills her sense of humor to Mary Laster, and hopes that she can cheer up a little and get as many laughs as she did.

Helen Huffman wills her typing speed to Sue Strange, and hopes that she can go a little faster than she did when taking one of those fast speed tests.

Shirley White wills her excuses for getting out of class to Phyllis Wagner, and hopes that she has better ones than she had when she reached class.

This will does hereby serve to distribute our most valuable possessions as seen to be fit.

CLASS PROPHECY

Well at last all the arrangements have been made and everyone is here in the gymnasium for the Reunion of the Class of 1954. Jack Coldiron, who is the founder and head of the University, is making the opening remarks. He is introducing Shirley Bacon who is a famous New York model for toothpaste advertisements. She is going to speak on "Being a Model the Hard Way." Her model school is one of the biggest in the world.

As I look around me and see my old classmates gathered here, what they have done in the way of success runs through my mind. First there is Shirley White, who is now sole owner and operator of a factory that manufactures "Hopeless Chests." She has a big business in Chicago. Sitting next to Shirley is Irene Glover, who is a teacher here at the University and author of the "New Glover's Shorthand Method," which will enable one to take dictation at 20 words a minute after completing the four-year course. Most people can't stick with it that long. Nancy Cole, who is sitting at the far end of the first row, now appears on the Johnston Radio Station singing for soap advertisements and "No Scratch Cleanser." Maybe some day she will become a big hit. Next to Nancy is Betty Cushman who owns her own restaurant in Greenville. It is called Tom's Place. She has discovered a kind of bread that is made without dough. Just eat some and you will know why.

Well the evening certainly has been an enjoyable one and I will be glad to go back to Vassar Girls' College and resume my duties as Girls' Athletic Coach. My team will be competing for the National Title of Jack Champions. You have probably wondered why none of us have never married, but we always were independent and decided we couldn't be bothered with the confinements of marriage.

CLASS POEM

We are the class of 54
The number is small but alas.
Great things can come from just one child
And that one could be in this class.

To make up our group we have but seven
I'll name them one by one.
Among them there's most everything
Ambition, brains, and fun.

First out-numbered six to one
Is Jack our only lad.
But of all the boys the country o've
He's the best we could have had.

First of the girls is Betty
The ambitious one we fear.
To make her grades all perfect A's
She studys hard all year.

Nancy Cole is our guiet one
To be seen and not heard 'tis true.
When we depart from these school days
Leaving her will make us blue.

Helen Huffman works hard all day
To accomplish is her mission.
When the day is thru, her work all done
We all know she has her lesson.

Dark-haired Shirley's a lovely girl
Laughing and never mean.
She's led our class in honors great
Both president and Queen.

A lively girl is our Irene
Who is present every day.
She keeps us moving from nine till three
But we love her anyway.

One last girl makes up our group
Her name is Shirley White.
Although she's the smallest of us all
We think her quite all right.

A few days to meet again
We think it's very great.
But Oh, how sad it's going to be
To have to separate.

HARVEST QUEEN DANCE

This year the Johnston Student Body decided to have a Harvest Queen Dance, instead of the usual Halloween carnival. The Queen and her ladies-in-waiting were to be chosen from the Senior Class. Two Attendants were to be picked from grades eight through grade eleven. Elections for the Queen were on Sept. 29. Results were as follows: Shirley Bacon, Queen; her two ladies-in-waiting, Irene Glover and Shirley White. For her escort, the Queen chose Jack Coldiron; Irene Glover chose Donald Blessing, and Shirley White chose Billy Lewis.

On October 13, 1953, elections were held for the Queen's Attendants. Each class was to pick two girls whom they wished to be attendants. When the ballots were counted the results were: Junior Class: Peggy Rush, Escort John Jewett; Mary Lou Phillips, Escort Jack Kirin; Sophomores: Janet Lininger, Escort Dick Bacon; and Catherine Phillips, Escort James Fletcher; Freshman Class: Nancy Pahon, Escort Anthony Roszak; and Arlene Field, Escort Leroy Ogilbee; Eighth Grade: Jane Coldiron, Escort Gary Hiestand, and Naomi Bland, Escort Tommy Wajda. The two flower girls were Barbara Lynn and Sue Morrison. The Crown Bearer was Eugene Ross.

Preparations were made immediately. Everyone began decorating the stage and gym. Practice was held in the Gym with Mrs. Lewis directing. Finally the big night came for the Crowning of the Queen. Mr. Remick led the High School band that started the Procession at 8:14 P. M. The Queen wore a white ballerina length formal. Her attendants wore pastel colored ballerina length formal. The Queen was crowned by Eleanor Hipkins. Following the crowning a short entertainment program was provided featuring Miss Choppa and members of the school. Dancing followed until 12:00 P. M. with dance music provided by the Howland Dance Band.
